

The Authors

Júlia Bara (1985) PhD. Did her university studies at the Babeş-Bolyai University in Cluj and at the Central European University in Budapest. In Cluj, after basic training in history and art history she earned a diploma in cultural heritage protection. In 2013 she defended her doctoral dissertation. After that she carried out research mainly in Budapest on the building and cultural patronage activities of the Károlyi family. In 2014 she received a diploma in history at the CEU. Since September 2014 she has been an associate of the Institute of Art History, MTA Research Centre for the Humanities. Main publications: Activity in Szatmár County of Joseph Bittheuser (1755–1828), estate architect of the Károlyi family (2016); Funeral Traditions of the Hungarian Aristocracy in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries: An Overview; “Regnavit Alexander et mortuus est.” The Funeral Ceremony of Sándor Károlyi in 1744 and its Art Historical Aspects (2013).

Mária Béres (1959) PhD. Received a diploma in archaeology and qualification as a secondary school teacher of history and Hungarian language and literature from the József Attila University of Szeged in 1983/1988, and a university doctorate from the same university in 1987. In 1994 she graduated as a monuments protection engineer from the Budapest University of Technology, in 2003 as a student of the ELTE PhD Doctoral School of Archaeology she defended her doctoral thesis. She has been an archaeologist of the Móra Ferenc Museum, head of the Southern Great Plain Regional Office of the Directorate for the Protection of the Cultural Heritage, then archaeologist director of the Koszta József Museum in Szentes. Her main area of interest is examination of the development and change in Arpadian settlements, and their movement. Main publications: The Message of the Óföldsék Cemetery (2005); Sarmatian Era Buildings Supported by Posts in the Vicinity of Szatymaz (2005).

Orsolya Gyöngyössi (1985) PhD. Received a humanities diploma in ethnology and philosophy in Szeged in 2008. In 2014 she defended her doctoral thesis at the Szeged Doctoral School of History. She is currently an associate of the MTA-SZTE Research Group for the Study of Religious Culture. The main focus of her enquiry is on the social role of the lower clergy and lay assistants, the veneration of saints, sacred visions, funeral orations, burial customs and religious confraternities. Main publications: “I give my last farewell, my final words”, the funeral valedictions of Dezső Knapek, Csanytelek (2010); Parish and society. The social role of the Roman Catholic lower clergy and lay assistants in Csongrád in the second half of the 19th century (2014).

Éva Kelemen (1969) PhD. She received a diploma as a geography teacher and landscape protection geographer in 1999 in Debrecen. In 2012 she defended her doctoral dissertation at the University of Debrecen Doctoral School of Earth Sciences. She is currently an associate of the Heves County office of the National Cultural Institute. Her main field of interest is the scientific examination of historical building materials, their archaeological aspect, and the geography of landscape and settlement history. Main publications: Szegvár–Sáp, Kontrapart (Csongrád County) Archaeometric examination of archaeological building materials (2012); Archaeometric findings of investigation of the ruined church at Hódmezővásárhely–Csomorkány (2008).