

RICZ, JUDIT

Institute of World Economics, Centre for Economic and Regional Studies

Mesa: Political and Economic Challenges of Latin America

The invited speakers of the round-table discussion will be: Dr. Bernadett Lehoczki (Corvinus), Dr. Judit Ricz (Institute of World Economics, Centre for Economic and Regional Studies), Dr. Béla Soltész (Institute of Foreign Affairs and Trade and ELTE). The round-table discussion will focus on the recent economic, social and political development of Latin America. Social injustice and poverty after COVID, armed conflicts, role of institutions, election results, Pink Tide 2.0, disruptions of global value chains, regional integrations.

Judit Ricz (PhD) is research fellow at the Institute of World Economics, Centre for Economic and Regional Studies (IWE CERS) and associate professor at Institute of World Economy at the Corvinus University Budapest (IWE CUB). She has conducted various (domestic and international) research projects, and is active in teaching various courses related to development economics, international political economy with special focus on Latin America. She is author of one book, and several other publications (peer reviewed journals and book chapters) related to these topics (both in Hungarian and English), and speaker at numerous conferences (both domestic and international).